

A Law Week 2007 Event

Best Practice Governance for Not-For-Profits

This free seminar will help you understand your organisation's governance obligations and help you to implement strategies to ensure your organisation is meeting its auditing and reporting obligations and to identify issues on which you may require further free legal advice.

TOPICS

- Operational & corporate governance
- Legal structures & constitutions
- Pros & cons of restructuring
- Board & Committee duties
- Auditing & reporting obligations
- Resolving internal disputes.

Date

Tuesday 15 May 2007
9.30am - 12.30pm

Venue

Geelong West Town Hall (Supper Room)
153 Pakington Street, GEELONG WEST

RSVP

To: Geelong Community Legal Service
Thursday 10 May 2007
Telephone 5221 4744
Email: info@geelegal.org.au

Light refreshments provided.

SPEAKERS

Tabitha Lovett

Manager of the Public Interest Law Clearing House (PILCH)

Tabitha manages the Public Interest Law Scheme which refers not-for-profits organisations which serve the disadvantaged, benefit low income clients or have public interest aims and objectives to PILCH's members (law firms and barristers) for pro bono legal services. Tabitha will discuss PILCH's Not-for-Project which aims to introduce new, specialist pro bono legal services to assist not-for-profits to meet their legal obligations, be well governed and provide their services to the community, without diverting their financial resources from their core service delivery.

Allison Purdey

Senior Associate - Corporate Advisory Clayton Utz

Allison has worked on various pro-bono matters advising on the establishment of not-for-profit organisations and has assisted not-for-profit organisations in initial structuring and restructuring matters together with providing advice on contracts and directors' duties.

Julian Berenholtz

Corporate Advisory Clayton Utz

Julian has worked on various pro-bono matters advising on the establishment of not-for-profit organisations and general advice regarding operational and corporate governance issues.